

Master's Program "American History, Culture and Society": Modules offered in the "Profilbereich/Profile Area" (2020)

Summer Term	WP Am 6 (12 CP) American Studies: Major Research Traditions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advanced Seminar • Lecture 	WP Am 7 (12 CP) Literature and Media: Advanced Research <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advanced Seminar • Reading Course 	WP Am 8 (6 CP) Literary and Media Studies: Advanced Concepts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Foundation Course 	WP Am 9 (12 CP) History and Society: Advanced Research <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advanced Seminar • Reading Course 	WP Am 10 (6 CP) The Study of History: Advanced Concepts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Foundation Course
Winter Term	WP Am 1 (12 CP) American Studies: Fields and Topics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advanced Seminar • Lecture 	WP Am 2 (12 CP) Literature and Media: Basic Research <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advanced Seminar • Reading Course 	WP Am 3 (6 CP) Literary and Media Studies: Basic Concepts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Foundation Course 	WP Am 4 (12 CP) History and Society: Basic Research <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advanced Seminar • Reading Course 	WP Am 5 (6 CP) The Study of History: Basic Concepts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Foundation Course

Students can choose between modules to earn 12 or 6 credit points.

Students must choose two classes from 12 CP-modules, one advanced seminar and one lecture or one advanced seminar and one reading course.

Students must choose one class from 6 CP-modules, a foundation course.

PLEASE NOTE: This overview represents the general template of modules and courses. The classes offered in this study program have individual titles. You can find examples on our Master's webpages (under "program") or in the online catalogue LSF.